A C K N O W L E D G M E N T S

In preparing this work I have had the assistance of several people, who have taken an interest in the research of the family genealogy. My mother (Hattie Youngblood) did much to encourage me and supplied me with much information. Kenneth Lynch a grandson of Emma (Youngblood) Newman, gave the Newman Line. Mildred (Wilson) England and her daughter Susan Regan gave me part of the Wilson line, Mildred being the grandaughter of Eudora (Youngblood) Wilson.

In my research in North Carolina where I found Dwight and Sidney Youngblood who gave me their line. Their great great grandfather Bud is believed to be our great great grandfathers Peters older brother, also Margaret Lee (Librarian in Smithfield N.C.) gave me material on Jacob Youngblood. Her great great grandfather was a half brother to Bud and Peter having the same mother. And to all my cousins who have given me pictures and material I want to thank you all, with out your help I could not have done it. I will not try to name all the people for fear of leaving some one out. So thanks again to all that had a part in this work.

YOUNGBLOOD

Found in German crest book, Siebmacher Book III the following is mentioned about the name-JUNGBLUT.

JUNGBLUT family is of an old citizen class from the 15th century, originating from the province of Hessen- Nassau.

During the crusades of the 12th and 15th centuries. Jungblut family had participated with courage and bravery.

In the fight for liberty, (1671) Wilhelm Heinrich Jungblut commander of cavalry regiment, was decorated for his great services to the benefit of the nation of Hessen authorities, with the medal for bravery 1st class and A great letter of heraldry in parchment.

He was outstanding for his bravery and courage at the battle for Kassel, during the 30-year war(Sweden War) therefore honored and decorated. He has been an ideal symbol for all of his fellow men.

Jungblut family partly emigrated to other German provinces, Baden-Wurtemberg, Bavaria and the Rhine-land,Descendants moved the following years to France, Switzerland, Netherlands and Austria, England and later to America. Becouse of migration the name spelling changed into Jungblut, Jungblood, and finally to Youngblood.

Early Youngbloods

The first Youngblood found in this country was Andrew Youngblood, who was here as early as June 1654 (Records edited by E. B. O'callaghan, Dutch Reg. Provincial Sed. p. 57)

The second was Abraham, who was in this country prior to 1660. He married Marie Bernard, a twin daughter of Marie (Bullock, William Bernard), who were married June 1, 1642 in the Dutch Church in New York.

Abraham Youngblood (Jongbloed) and Marritje (Marie) Bernard had three known children: Cirina, baptized April 28, 1664. Vol. 1 1639--1734 Dutch Reformed Church, New York. Abraham Youngblo was a land owener, as in 1661 he hired his land to Govert Lockerman. (Vol.21 ,p. 171, New York Gen. and Bio--Fernow.)

In 1702 Thomas Youngblood was on the tax list in Gun Powder Hundred Baltimore Co. Maryland.

Thomas Youngblood married about 1707 Mary surname believe to be Miles. As their only child, John Miles Youngblood baptized Oct. 31, 1708, in St. George Parish, Baltimore County Maryland. In the section of Maryland that became Hartford County, (St. George Parish Reg. p. 217).

The name Youngblood had severall different spellings, Jongbloodt/ Jonkbloedt/ Jungblut/ Yungblood/ it depended on what nationality the person was, and where they came from. The English spelling being Youngblood.

In March of 1978 on our way home from Florida we decided to return home by the way of North Carolina, stoping in Raleigh to do research on Jacob Youngblood. In his war record it stated he was born in North Carolina. While I was in the Archives looking for the 1790 N.C. census book,that I could not find. The librarian came to my assistance and spotted a lady who had ben useing it. Upon asking her if she was through useing it she stated I was looking for one of my grand parents by the name of Jacob Youngblood. I told her I was a Youngblood and was traceing his line also. She told me she lived in Smithfield, just twenty miles south of Raleigh and if I would come down there she would exchange material with me on Jacob. I agreed to call her Saturday when I arrived at Smithfield. Upon calling Margaret Lee she told me she was the librarian in Genealogy part of the library. She stated there was another Youngblood just out side of town. She asked us to meet her at the library Sunday after noon. Shortly after talking to Mrs Lee the phone rang and it was Sidney Youngblood (wife of Dwight) wanting to meet with us also at the library.Mrs Lees grand parent was James Harrison son of Delilah who was a half brother to our Peter having the same mother. Dwight Youngblood grand parent was Ichabud (Bud) Youngblood whom they had thought came off of either Henry or Thomas who took out land years 1761 and 1763.How ever evidence points to Bud as son of Delilah Jacob . After the meeting Sidney ask us to come out to their place as they were having cook out that evening. Dwight had a friend bring him a bushel of oysters in the shell from the coast. Upon arriving Dwight was already cooking the oysters on their grill big enough to cook a largh hog on. As the oyster became cooked the shell would open up a little, taking a knive Dwight would pop it the rest of the way open taking the meat and putting them in a bowle. When I told him I had never seen any thing like this as I was from the mid-west, he replied you should be here in hog picking time; than he proceeded to tell me how they would butcher a hog opening it up end ways, placing insides down on the grill. They would cook it this way for about nine hours, letting the fat melt into the fire. When it was about done they would turn it over and paint it with their mixtur of spises they liked. He said they would invite a bunch of friends in and they would walk around the hog cutting off what they wanted picking it down to the bone.

Every year after meeting the Youngbloods from Wilson Mills just north of Smithfield N.C. we have came back home going through the Carolinas doing research on the Youngbloods exchanging information with them. Also I have spent much in Raleigh at the Archives and state library, also the state land grant library of recordes. In 1984 was last trip we made through N.C. We found out that Dwight had died in May of 1983 I employed a William D. Bennett of Raleigh to do some research for me on the Youngbloods land. Also I had a Gary E. Myer of Baltimore Maryland who did research for me in Germany as well as some on the estern sea board.

When going back two hundred and fifty years in time it is very hard to trace in detail records when some of them have been lost, destroyed with age and time. How ever I will try to present what I have found. Starting with records of HOLY TRINITY (OLD SWEDES CHURCH), Wilmington, Delaware fro 1697to 1773. Page 364 John Youngblood Married Hannah Mousley 25 Oct.1736: Page 366 Jacob Youngblood Married Mary Welsh 10,April 1738: I believe them to be brothers.Records of The DUTCH REFORMED CHURCH OF Hackensack and Schraalenburgh, New Jersey,1722-1739 "Vrouwtie Jongbloodt"/Jonkbloedt".wife, than widow, of Jan Ariaense the elder, then wife of Johannes Kammigaa/Cammigas; married Jan.19,1723. The surname Garretson also occurs in these with other names that have been connected with or knew for many years, as they moved down the seaboard states. To Pa. and than on into North Carolina. Jongbloets were in the province of New York by 1660!s the name can be followed into New Jersey in early 1700!s with the possibility that "Vrouwtie" if married and widowed twice, could be the mother of John and Jacob who appear in Wilmington, Delaware in period 1736- 1738. Another possible answer was found up on research in Germany, RECORDS OF CHURCH AT URBACH IN THE WESTERWALD REGION GERMANY. List Johannis Jungblut seven children Baptisms,in the years 1795 through 1708. There was a Jacobus listed April 1,1703 with four brothers with Johannes as first name,named after their father. If this should be ours he lived to age of 87. Our was in the 1790 cencus N.C. Further research may be able to clear up. I have been unable to find them on any ship passage lists.

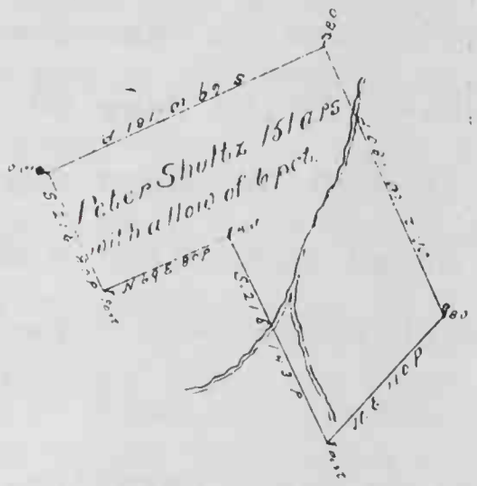
By Sept. 25, 1738 Jacob had moved west of the Susquehanna river and had taken out a warrant on 200 acres land in that what was known as DIGGES CHOICE, John Digges had obtained on Jan.14 1727 from the Fourth Lord Baltimore, grant for 10,000 acres of land. This original title to the land was given twelve years befor the temporary line was made between Maryland and Penn. and nine years befor the heirs of William Penn had purchased from the Indians the rights west of the Susquehanna river.

May 29, 1740 Jacob Youngblood was a witness to a wedding at a meeting of (Friends or Quakers) held at John Day's house.Robert Hodgin of Manchester in the Co. of Landcaster to Theodate Seal.

John, may have died by the time of the wedding in 1740 Jacob attended. Hanna Jungblut was listed as a witness at the baptism of Johann Jacob, son of Mary(Welsh) and Jacob(Jungblut)Youngblood in Conewago. It appears that John and Hanna had two children befor John died,Marie Martha and John Youngblood.It is believed John's widow married the immigrant Johann Christian Rehkopf who arrived in Philadelphia in 1744. This would explain the marriage record of 1758 when Marrie Martha Jungblut,step daughter of Christian Rehkopf, marries Johann Wplfgang Wieseler the other child John, who married Elizabeth Magdalen. John died about 1774 or early 1775. In Chester Co. Historical Society West Chester Pa. in deed index of unrecorded deeds, Deed dated 21 June 1777 in which Elizabeth Magdalen, widow of John Youngblood sell to Frederick Gerhart parcel land in Chester Co. When all said and done, we have supported by a good deal of circumstantial evidence, that a nephew of Jacob stayed in Chester CO.

Upon checking at the land office in Lancaster Co. Penn. I find a copy of a survey in book--A Vol.58 Page 90 Jacob Youngblood warrent for 200 acres of land at Conewago Sept.25,1738. Acres returned 151. There were other Youngblood's who settled on Digges Choice. Besides Jacob there were Peter and Derrick. It is thought they were related, but how? We do not know when Jacob left Penn. and moved to North Carolina. We do know the land in Penn. came up for discussion and decision, concerning the land titles.Jacob unable to get a clear title eventually moved to North Carolina. The next person to take out Jacob's land was Peter Schultz Sept. 25, 1798.

It appears that the infant son of Jacob and Mary (Welsh) Youngblood (Johann Jacob) died befor Jacob Sr. had moved to North Carolina; this circumstance would explain naming another child Jacob in 1750. It is believed Jacob Sr. had a spinster daughter Judith born before 1755 outliving her mother Mary. Jacob Sr. was listed head house in 1790 census. Judith was listed as head of the house in the 1800 census, Judith being the only Youngblood in the county at this time. By the mid 1760 the people were throughly fed-up with corruption in the courts. Many of the sheriffs who collected the taxes embezzled the major part of the money. Clerks were charging excesive fees. This led to the organization of the Regulator Movement. The Youngblood were active in this movement. Peter, Thomas, John and James signed the most famous of this group in 1768. Jacob being a Quaker did not sign the petition.



By Virtue of a warrt from the Hon^{ble} Proprietaries bearing Date the 25th Day of September Anno Dom^{i} 1798 Shall Survey and layd out unto Peter Shultz on a Branch of Codorus Creek in the County of Lancaster on the west side Susquehanna river in right of Jacob Troxel one hundred and fifty one acres of Land with Allowance of Six pCent Beginning at a Post a Corner of Bernard Barnitz and thence North East one hundred and Ten perches to a Black oak thence North Twenty one degrees West one hundred and eighty ps to a Black oak thence South Sixty nine degrees Westerly one hundred & eighty nine perches to a white oak thence South twenty one degrees easterly eighty perches to a post Then North Sixty nine degrees Easterly eighty perches to a post thence South Twenty one degrees Easterly one hundred & forty three perches to the place of Beginning Jacob Sr. in June 1755 was received into unity of the Quaker (Friends) metting up on his request,(Cain Creek minutes Orange Co) N . C. Jacob Sr.in the office of John Earl Granville on Feb. 10, 1762 entry for seven hundred acres of land on Rocky River Orange Co. N. C. While the land was supposed to have been surveyed in six months it was not unusuel to have a longer delay. The grantee then had twelve months after the survey was made to make a return befor getting his grant from Granville, Unfortunately thirteen months after the entry was made Granville's Land Grant Office closed following the death of Granville and never reopened. From then until 1778 there were no way to get a title to vacant land in this area.The grant for Jacob was for land adjoining George Hobson Jr. and included the improvements of Jacob and Jonathon Williams. In other words, Jonathon Williams could have been living on this land befor Jacob moved in.

Jacob and Mary (Welsh) Youngblood had at least three known living children, Jacob Jr. born 1750 , Judith daughter (never married) Jacob Jr. spoke of a brother in his war records, but never named him.

Jacob Sr. married Sarah Williams Sept. 30,1784. (Randolph Co. North Carolina marriages,) daughter of Jonathon and Mary Williams.

Jacob Sr. was disowned Sept. 1784 for marriage out of the faith. (Minutes Cain Creek Monthly meeting) ENCYCLOPEDIA OF AMERICAN QUAKER GENEALOGY---by Wade Hinshaw.

Many of the records of pre-Revolutionary Orange Co. were destroyed when they were buried to avoid capture by Cornwallis's troops. That is the reason that some of the deed books and records are missing. The records kept by Friends Monthly Meetings during the eighteen and nineteen centuries usually consisted of a record of births and deaths, a record of marriage certificares, and minutes covering all proceedings and discussions coming before the monthly sessions of the meeting. As the men and women met separately, two sets of minutes were kept. In some meetings the marriage records were kept in the same book with the birth and death records; in other they were kept in a separate. The birth and death records are never complete. Records of disciplinary action against members for violation of the rules of the Society occupy much space. Members were "dealt with" on a great variety of complaints, including fiddling and dancing, drinking intoxicating liquor to excess, serving in the militia or other armed forces, using profane language, fighting, failure to meet financial obligations, marrying contrary to the order used by Friends, deviation from plainess in apparel or speech, joining another religious society, etc. Unless the offending member express sorrow for his misconduct and brought a signed paper codemning the same, The number disowned runs into thousands. "Marriage out of unity," " marriage contrary to Discipline," was the cause of more disownment than any other offense Unfortunately the minutes rarely give the name of the person to who the offending member was married.

Ichabud (Bud) Youngblood was born in 1787 believed to be son of Jacob and Delilah (Hood) Youngblood. Peter my great great grandfather born to Jacob and Delilah 1788 in N. C. Bud stayed in N. C. with his mother while Peter moved with Jacob to S. C. ,then on to Indiana. Bud's descendants Dwight, wife Sidney live on the farm that has been in the family for years, out side of Smithfield N. C. Sidney gave me their line back to Bud their great,great grandfather. They had thought that they were from the line of Thomas or Henry Youngblood that had taken out grants in Johnston Co. in July 21,1761 and Jan.1, 1763. In the 1790 census Jacob Jr.was in Edgefield S. C. remarried with a family, while Delilah was listed head of family Wake Co.N.C. (1) free white male 16 and upward (2) free white male under 16 years, (5) free females including heads family. LEGAL NAME CHANGES BY ACT OF N. C. ASSEMLY (1800-1804) YOUNGBLOOD OF WAKE CO. pp 55) James,Betsey,Elisha & Karonhapuck Youngblood to James, Betsey,Elisha & Karenhapuck Harrison. John Harrison married Delilah Youngblood April 21, 1806. It appears that John Harrison probably a widower with small children had moved in with Delilah. The four children he adopted were probably his own, born out of wedlock still having the Youngblood name. They would be half brothers and sisters to Bud, Peter having same mother. Further circumstantial evidence shows John Harrison named James Harrison (son) Bud Youngblood (a Friend) as Executors to his will April 27,1821.(Bud must have been his stepson.)

Descendants of Icabud Youngblood Family in North Carolina

Dwight Benjamin Youngblood, Sr. was a son of Paul Percival Youngblood (11-23-1891--10-17-1957 who was a descendant of Icabud Youngblood who was born 1787. Land grants in Johnston County by Lord Grandville were made to Henry Youngblood Jan.1, 1763 and Thomas Youngblood July 21, 1761. We have not been able to determine who Icabud belonged to but feel that it must have been from this family connection.As the Youngblood family is traced we will find them to be landowners and farmers since the earliest days of Johnston County.

Icebud Youngblood married Betsy Rice 12-16-1806. According to land deeds Icabud and Betsy owned several tracts of land in the Swift and Little Creek community of Johnston County. They had five children listed in Icabud's will written Oct.11,1856. This is recorded in Johnston County Records. The children were Thomas Rice,James, Betsy, John and Mary.

Thomas Rice (3-8-1827--204-1899) and his brother James married sisters and moved approximately thee miles west of Smithfield to what is now known as Wilson's Mille Road. Thomas Rice married Caroline Lunceford (11-20-1830-4-21-1896) 5-17-1848. James married Miriam Lunceford 5-27-1840. Caroline and Miriam were daughters of David and Emily Hicks Lunceford who were married 10-26-1805.

Thomas Rice and Caroline had eleven children. The following are their children and who they married: James H. (4-7-1849-1-27-1898) married 12-24-1867 Mary Augustus Mitchiner;

Albert H. Youngblood-Bunn Vows Spoken In Spring Hope

In a 4 o'clock ceremony August 26 in the Gibson Memorial Methodist Church of Spring Hope Miss Agnes Sidney Bunn became the bride of Dwight Benjamin Youngblood of Smithfield. The Rev. Ben Musser of Seaboard, assisted by the Rev. R. Stewart Brodie of Spring Hope, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of State Senator and Mrs. C. Settle Bunn of Spring Hope. Mr. Youngblood is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Youngblood of Smithfield.

Palms and ferns provided a background for cathedral candles in branched candelabra and baskets of white gladioli, asters and tube roses. A program of wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Walter Parker of Henderson, pianist, and Mrs. Haynes Sherron of Lexington, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore an original wedding gown designed by Vene' of white imported, hand appliqued Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over lustrous slipper satin. Lace molded the fitted bodice and long, tapering sleeves. The scalloped neckline had a delicate tracing of seed pearls and tulle yoke. A billowy lace tunic cascaded over the full tulle skirt which fell into a demure chapel train. Her two-tier veil of imported French illusion was attached to a half bonnet of satin and lace trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white satin prayer book topped with a white orchid showered with white stephanotis.

Miss Margaret Youngblood of Smithfield, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Ray Cummings of Asheboro. They wore identical floor length gowns of mint green nylon net and imported lace over taffeta fashioned with a sculptured bodice of lace enfolding a shirred bosom of net enhanced with a matching lace stole. Their bouffant skirts fell from lace pannier effect peplums. They wore matching half bonnets of net and carried colonial bouquets of yellow golden rapture roses and glamelias.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Guy Brown of Providence, R. I., and Mrs. Bob Newsome of Spring Hope. They wore gowns identical to the honor attendants with matching hats and carried colonial bouquets similar to those of the honor attendants.

Mr. Youngblood attended his son as best man. Ushers were Robert Youngblood of Raleigh, brother of the groom, Spruill Bunn of Spring Hope, brother of the bride, John A. Wilson of Wilson's Mills and Jimmy Mitchiner of Wilsons Mills.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bunn wore an afternoon dress of blue lace over taffeta with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Youngblood wore an afternoon dress of powder blue crepe trimmed in lace with which she used navy accessories and a white orchid.

Following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a reception at their home, Gold Leaf Farm, at Stanhope.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh Roberson of Spring Hope greeted the guests and introduced them to the receiving line which was composed of the wedding party and the parents of the bride and groom. Mrs. Braxton Bunn and Mrs. Don Hardison of Snow Hill directed guests to the dining room where punch was poured by Mrs. James Smith of Greenville and Miss Ann Elibabeth Youngblood of Wilson.

Assisting in serving fancy nuts, mints and bridal cakes were Miss Mary Younghlood of Smithfield, Mrs. Charles Bunn, Miss Mary Roberson of Spring Hope, Miss Kay Boyette of Smithfield, Miss Susan Wilson of Wilson's Mills, Miss Willistine Strickland, Miss Peggy Brantley, Miss Helen Baines and Miss Mary Jo Puckett of Spring Hope.

Mrs. Effie Mae Morris of Spring Hope directed guests to the gift room where Mrs. Robert Youngblood of Raleigh, Miss Lanie Strickland and Mrs. Bessie Brantley of Spring Hope received. Mr. and Mrs. Kendell Cooper of Fort Belvoir, Va., kept the guest book and goodbyes were said to Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Bass of Wilson.

For traveling the bride changed to a brown Thomas cotton suit with which she used brown accessories and the white orchid from her prayer book.

Mrs. Youngblood is a graduate of Spring Hope High School, attended East Carolina College and graduated from Duke University where she was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. She has been employed by the Nash County and Durham County departments of public welfare.

Mr. Youngblood graduated from Wilson's Mills High School, attended Mars Hill junior college and graduated from Wake Forest College. He is now employed by the North Carolina Department of Revenue with offices in Smithfield.

The couple will make their home in Wilson's Mills.

On Tuesday night following the rehearsal Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Sherron of Lexington and Mr. and Mrs. Kendell Cooper of Fort Belvoir, Va., entertained at a cake-cutting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh Lee Roberson of Stanhope. Guests were the bridal party, out-of-town guests, close friends and relatives.

Dwight B. Youngblood, 60, Of Route 3, Smithfield

Dwight Benjamin Youngblood, 60, a farmer and farm-supply dealer of Route 3, Smithfield, died Wednesday night in Johnston Memorial Hospital following an illness.

Mr. Youngblood was born June 15, 1922, near Wilson's Mills, the son of the late Paul and Effie Casey Youngblood.

The funeral was held at 11 a.m. Friday in Wilson's Mills Christian Church, of which he was a member. The Rev. Alex Moody, pastor, officiated. Burial was in Knollwood Cemetery on Route 1, Clayton.

Pallbearers were Stratton Story Jr., Peter Wilson, Jim Wilson, J. T. Uzzle Jr., Ben Parrish Jr., and Harold Strickland.

DWIGHT YOUNGBLOOD

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Sidney Bunn Youngblood; one son, Ben Youngblood of Route 3, Smithfield; one daughter, Miss Martha Youngblood of Washington, D.C.; and three sisters, Miss Mary Youngblood of Route 3, Smithfield, Mrs. Margaret Hardy of Route 1, La Grange, and Mrs. Anne MacArthur of Goldsboro.

The family suggests that expressions of sympathy may be in the form of contributions to Wilson's Mills Christian Church or the Wilson's Mills Fire Department.

OBITUARY OF MRS JOHN HARRISON

(DELILAH YOUNGBLOOD)

THE RALEIGH REGISTER JUNE 28, 1848

In Johnston county on Saturday last, Mrs Delilah Harrison relict of Mr. John Harrison in her 85th year of her age. She died in full assurance of a blissful immortality beyond the grave.

By the year of 1790 most of the Youngbloods had sold their land in North Carolina and had moved to South Carolina. Only William and Thomas were in Johnston County, with Jacob Sr. in Chatham Co. with Delilah in Wake Co. left in North Carolina as listed in the 1790 census.

In the census of 1790 South Carolina we find listed a Mrs Youngblood and family also a Peter Youngblood and family in St. Bartholomes, Charleston Dist. In Abbevillie Co. was listed the Sam Youngblood family. In district 96 Edgefield Co. we have the listings of 14 Youngblood families,Peter, John, 2 Lewis, 2 Jacobs,Abraham, Andrew, James, Jeremiah, Thomas, George, Aaron, Joseph. In 1798 another Jacob Youngblood of Columbia Co. Georgia married Leuvina Ash. We find in Stub Entries claims against S. C. growing out of the Revolutionary service. Book U # 126 Issued the 7 of July 1785 to Jacob Youngblood for thrity Pounds Sterling for duty done in the Militia as per Account Audited- Principal L33-0-0- Annual Interest L2. .6-2-. The Youngbloods were all related and seemed to migrate together and follow each other down the eastern seaboard, till after 1790 census they begin to separate and go different ways, going into Georgia, Florida, Kentucky, Alabama, Texas, Illinois. Jacob Jr. married Sarah (maiden name believed to be Still) befor 1790 Census. There were several land transactions in Edgefield 1774 throught 1800's with Jacob Youngblood buying or selling, being two Jacobs in this part S. C. . At this time it is impossible to determine what was whose as they both signed with a mark. (12 in all no wives name mention.

Jacob Jr. having left his home in North Carolina, joining the tide of migration to new lands as had his forefathers befor him. He was residing in Georgia by 1774, where he served fighting for the next five years in and out in several engagements in Georgia and South Carolina being discharged in October 1779. (The next page is Jacob Jr. war records as listed by the Government.)

We do not know when he left Georgia but we do know that he returned to North Carolina for he married Delilah Hood June 6, 1786 of Wake Co. N. C. To this union were born two sons (Ichabud) Bud in 1787, Peter 1788, befor 1790 Jacob Jr. had gone back to S. C. and had remarried. The 1790 census show Jacob as head of the house and 1 male under 16(Peter) 2 females including head of the family (wife Sarah daughter Telephy). Why Jacob left Delilah and returned to S. C. can only be speculation on our part; Its apparent Jacob had purchased land in S. C. in District 96 Edgefield Co. For some reason Delilah refused to move to S. C., so he returned to S. C. taking Peter with him.

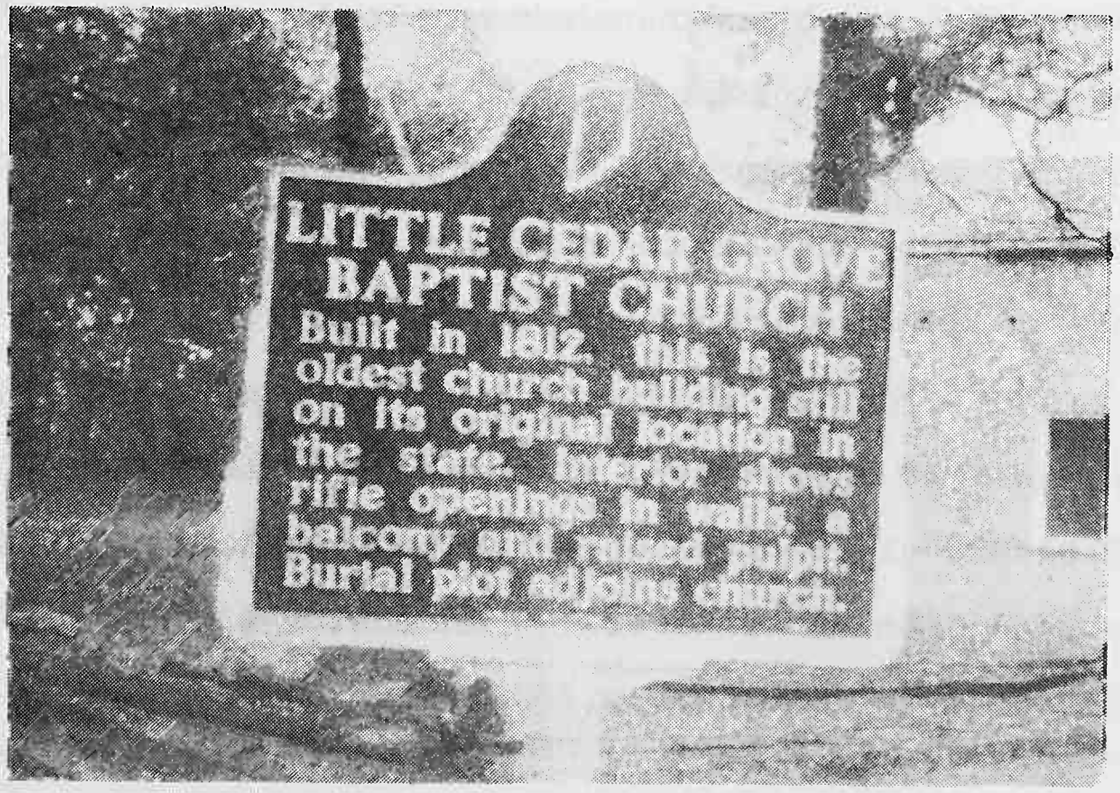
Sept.26, 1797 John Still named his wife Jane and his son-inlaw Jacob Youngblood Executor to his estate. We find in Verkus Compendium of American Genealogy Vol.VI page 741, Jacob Youngblood American Revolution Married Sarah Still. Jacob being the only Jacob Youngblood having a Revolutionary war record. We do not know just when Jacob and Sarah left S.C.

FRANKLIN COUNTY INDIANA FIRST

The first county court met Feb.18, 1811; first common pleas court, March 4, 1811; first land entered b. Mc Carty May 25, 1803; first marriage license Jan.7, 1811 William Mc Donald and Ruth Gregg; first indictment was returned June 24, 1811 selling liquor to the Indians; first town- Brookville laid out Aug. 8, 1808; George Frasier and Peter Youngblood were allowed seventyfive cents for killing three wolves each, in the first common pleas court.

Jacob and Sarah Youngblood's daughter Telphy married William Henderson April 4, 1812 in Brookville, Indiana. They had a son Any. (Andy)

Peter Youngblood was mustered into service July 16, 1813 at Brookville Ind. with rank of private under Capt. Elliot Herndon Company from the 7th Regiment Indiana Militia ordered into service for protection of the frontier of Franklin County, Ind.



LITTLE CEDAR GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH

The oldest Church in Indiana still standing on its original foundation. The Church is located three miles south of Brookville on U.S. 52. The society of Baptist was organized in 1805. Log church was erected by early settlers in the lower Whitewater River Valley. The growing congregation recuired a larger structure, they were debating were to built it, they were divided on opinion where to build on till a series of earth quakes in 1811 reminded the pioneers of their religious responsibilities, (GOD HAD SPOOKEN). Subscriptions were taken, masons and carpenters were employed, with much labor donated. Material for the bricks were kneeded nearby by oxen. The original hand hewn logs are still in place. During the winter they heated the church with charcoal burning in a pit, in front of the pulpit, this was done so the smocke from the fireplace did not betray the presence of the faithful at worship.

On May 2, 1807 Jacob and Sarah Youngblood were accepted into the membership. Discipline was handed out against their members when ever a complaint was brought forward. RULES OF THE CHURCH WERE (1) All private transgressions dealt with agreeable to the eighteenth chapter of Matt. (2) any member having a complaint, if they notify the person, it will be acted upon at the next meeting.(3) Allcomplaints received touching the fellowship wil be attended to befor the door will be oppen -ed for reception of members. (4) Reception of members by unamous consent of the church.(5) Exclusion by majority of the church.

(6) any member wishing to speak first will arise address the Moderator and is not to speak more than twice to any motion. (7) Any motion made and seconded is to be taken up. (8) No member is to be found wispering in time of public speaking, during sitting of the church. (9) No male member shall leave his seat without permission. (10) All male members to attend meeting of business, take their seats at or near hour of eleven except they be providentially hindered, and first opportunity to let the church know the cause of their not attending. Church recordes show Jacob was on a committee of seven who labored long to bring two rebellious mambers to forgive each other. There were severial complaints against different members, one member complained against himself for the sin of striking a man three times with a whip, and acknowledging his fault was restored to the fellowship. Frecuently, after this by members, against themselves and others. Once when an old feeble sister's suffering came to the knowledge of the church, the members rose up every man and voted an assessment on each, according to his means, in order to pay her doctor's bill. The Rev.Tyner and William De Weese were two ministers who served the church. Rev. De Weese was driving his ox team to the mill, when he was stopped by a young couple on horseback, to ask him to turn around as they were going to his house to be married. Got a license the preacher asked? It was produced . He examined it for a moment, then, looking at them as they sat on the horse. "So you want to get married, do you? Both of you?" Both nodded assent.Than I Pronounce you man and wife, Go home your married.

PETER YOUNGBLOOD U. S. LAND GRANT

Feb. 1816 Forest Weeb,Jacob Youngblood,James Tyner of the Lick Creek Baptist Church were Chosen to select a place for a burying ground and the results was the origin of the old graveyard and the site of Lick Creek Church, as stated in the History of Fayette County Indiana. Looking for information on the Youngblood!s, while at my sisters in Greenfield, Ind. I drove to Connersville, Ind. to do research at the courthouse, where I found nothing as they closed at noon. I inquired on the street where the old cemetery was. I was told it was about mile and half north west of town. The care taker lived across the road from the cemetery, I found no Youngbloods in the old part,as some were unreadable. Upon checking with the caretaker he told me that a Miss Helena Thomas knew more about the old cemetery then any one else. I went to her house and when I told her my name and that I was looking for Information on the Youngbloods that had laid out the cemetery or he might be in it. (I was looking for Jacb!s wife (Sarah). She told me she had often heard her grandfather speak of the Youngbloods and thought she might be some relation to us. But she could not remember what the connection was. She told me to leave my address and she would write if she remembered. I went back to Greenfield that night. Next morning I was back at the courthouse when it opened. Upon furrther research I found Peter Youngblood had sold sixty acres for one hunderd,twenty dollars to a John Murphy April 1823 and Oct.11, One hundred acres to William Thomas For six hundred dollers.

The lady at the court house said it looked like Peter's land might be an original. I told my mother that I was going back and tell Miss Thomas what the connections were. Whene she came to the door, she told me she had just sent a letter to my home stating she had Peter's land grant issued by President James Monroe May 1819 hanging on her wall. I looked at it for a little while, than ask her if she would part with it. She thought a little while, than said it would mean more to me as it had the Youngblood name on it. I offered her money but she refused it and said just give me five dollars. She also had an old surveyers chain hanging over a door. It was a chain with links about twelve inches long with what looked like small stirrup on each end.(I wish later I had tried to buy it.) On getting back to Greenfield I took the grant out of the frame. It had been glued to a piece of corragated card board. On the back it read DEED PETER YOUNGBLOOD TO WILLIAM W. THOMAS. It is of sheep skin and had been folded. It is JAMES MONROE'S own signature. I was told by an expert. Up to 1830 the Presidents signed all governt grants. I had Donnely in Chicago restore it and sealed it in plastic to preserve it,It had come home to the Youngbloods after one hundred and forty six years. Up on returning to Connersville in 1973,I went to show Miss Thomas the grant restored. I found that she had died. Going to the cemetary I found she had been buried between her parents. 1897----1973

Jacob's War Recored

Jacob Jr. Youngblood by 1774 resided in Georgia as he was called out under Joseph Cobb and served one month against the Indians. In January 1775 while a resident of Edgefield District S. C. he enlisted and served in Captain John Ryan's company, Colonel Le Roy Hammond's S. C. regiment, and was stationed during the battle of Stone as an outpost under Captain Hatcher, length of service six months. About two years later, he enlisted served in Captain John Ryan's company, Colonel Le Roy Hammond's S. C. regiment, was in the Siege of Augusta, after which he was sent by General Andrew Pickens with an express to General Green, and was discharged last of October; Subsequently, he served on different tours in the S. C. troops engaged against the Indians and Tories, one tour lasting a month. A part of his service was rendered as a sergeant, the rest as a private.

Jacob Youngblood was allowed a pension on his application executed November 13, 1832, at which time he resided in Fountain County Ind. He made no reference to his wife or children. The soldier referred to his brother but did not state his name, nor give any information in regard to his residence.

In order to obtain the date of last payment of pension, name of person paid, and, possibly, the date of death of this pensioner, you should apply to the Controller General, General Accounting Office, Records Division, this city and furnish the following; Jacob Youngblood --Certificate # 19332--Issued August 26, 1833-- Rate $43.33 per annum--commenced March 4,1831 Act of June 7, 1832 Indiana Agency.

BIOGRAPHY

WILLIAM FRANKLIN YOUNGBLOOD

Mr Youngblood was born in Fayette county Ind. Dec. 18, 1825. He lived in Fountain Co. till twenty five years old, when he came to Vermilion Co. settled in Grant Township, were he has since resided, engaged in farming and the live stock trade. He owens a fine farm of some 500 acres, well improved, all in cultivation and well stocked.

November 15th, 1849, he was united in marriage to Seline Swaim daughter of Richard and Elizabeth Swaim, of Park County Indiana. This marriage has been blessed with six living children, Cassius M, Eudora, the wife of George T. Wilson, of Iroquois Co. Ambrose, Emma, Peter, and Lewis. With the exception of two years (1846-47) spent in boating on the Mississippi River, Mr. Youngblood has all his life, from boyhood up, been engaged in agricultural work, in which he has achieved succes, For the last ten years he has been school trustee of his township, and the present is in his fourth year as Supervisor of the county Board, Mr Youngblood;s father, Peter, was a native of North Carolina. He married Miss Sarah Booe in Franklin Co. Ind. Nov. 15, 1815. and at an early day moved to Fayette County Ind.(before 1816) About 1826 he moved Fountain Co. Ind. Peter was in the celebrate battle of New Orleans, His father Jacob, was a continental of the Revoltionary War, and severed under the command of General Green.

The ancestery were from Germany, and were among the first settlers of the Colonies.

WILLIAM FRANKLIN YOUNGBLOOD

W. F. Youngblood, the progenitor of the Vermillion Co. branch of the Youngblood family, was born to Peter and Sarah (Boo) Youngblood Dec. 15, 1825 in Fayette Co.Ind. Next year Peter moved to Fountain Co. Ind. William lived here till he married Seline (Swaim) Nov. 15, 1849. Than he moved to Warren Co. Ind. Here Cassius, Ambrose and Eudora were born. In 1855 William moved his family to Grant township, one mile east of where the Antioch Church stands today. Here Emma, Peter and Barton Lewis were born.

By 1874 William was farming five hundred acres well improved, stocked, and equipped, having planted a large Walnut grove to the north and Maple to the west of his buildings. The front yard was fenced with white pickets. Between the garden and house they had a cave with a shsllow tank of running water piped from the well for cooling their food. Above the cave was a storage building for produce. The house, barn and cave is still there (smaller building over cave today). William served on the Vermillion Co. board as Supervisor for several terms. Seline and William were charter members of the Antioch Church. He served in office of Elder, Trustee, Treasurer and Sunday School Superintendent. William died Oct.3, 1895, Seline died Nov.19,1903. They were both buried in Miller cemetery east of Rossville, Ill.

Submitted to the book; History of Ross and south Ross Township Vermilion county Ill.

Cassius, (William's son) married Margaret Sherill Dec.25,1873, started farming north of Pence Ind. Nora and Frank were born here. They moved to the school Eighty down the road from his dad's place. Here Albert was born. In 1880 Cassius and family moved to the Jonathan Prather place, He farmed it for seventeen years. It was here Charles, Claude and Peter were born. Cassius's wife Margaret died in 1895. Cassius remarried, Ella Engle. To this union were born Vernice on the Prather place befor they moved to Arkansas where Ambrose and Newton was born. Cassius raised rice for twenty years befor retiring and moved back to Rossville Ill. He died in 1926, Ella died in 1951. Both are buried in Miller cemeter, east of Rossville as was his first wife. Peter married Caroline Stuffelbean, farmed the home place, raised and trained sulky race horses, had a track across the road from the house.He moved to Hoopeston in 1902. He died in 1925, Caroline died in 1924, both are buried in Rossville, Barton married Flora Sweet, farmed the home place after Peter retired. About 1920 Barton moved to the farm he had bought one mile west and half mile south of the church on the east side of the road. He retired in 1929 and moved to Hoopeston. Flora died in 1933. Barton died in 1959. Both buried in Hoopeston. Claude farmed the old Youngblood place for a few years, till he went to work for the American Can Co. Ralph and his new wife moved in (Virginia) to harvest corn crop for Claude. He was the last Youngblood to live on the old place. Today the pride of yesterday has faded into the past, as time has taken its toll. Submitted to book History Ross Township.

Mrs. Salina Youngblood Dies of Heart Trouble, Almost Without Warning--Good Life Ended

As announced in last week's CHRONICLE, Mrs. Salina Youngblood died suddenly at the residence of her son, P. H. Youngblood, on First avenue, at about midnight Tuesday night. The body was taken to Antioch church, southeast of town, leaving the family residence at nine o'clock in the morning. Rev. W. F. McConnell delivered the funeral discourse, after which the body was taken to the Miller graveyard, four miles east of Rossville, for interment by the side of kindred dust.

Mrs. Younblood had been apparently as well as usual the day and evening before, and retired at night in the usual manner. Just before midnight she called to her son, who found that she was suffering from heart trouble. A physician was hastily summoned, but before he arrived the spark of life had fled.

Salina Swaim was born in Indiana February 9, 1829. She was united in marriage with W. F. Youngblood November 15, 1849, and seven years latter they settled on a farm southeast of Hoopeston, in the Antioch neighborhood, where they remained until the death of the husband and father in 1881. To them were born ten children, five of whom survive, as follows: Cassius M., Peter F., Mrs. George T. Wilson, Mrs. George W. Newman and Lewis Youngblood, all residents of this city and vicinity. Deceased leaves one brother, Ambrose Swaim, west Chestnut street, who is the only one of the family left.

W. F. Youngblood was one of the foremost citizens of Grant township in its earlier years, having frequently represented the township on the county board. Both he and his wife were earnest consistent members of the Christian church. Mrs. Youngblood will long be remembered by the earlier residents of this section as one of the best of women, and will be longest missed by those who knew her most intimately and loved her.

William Franklin Youngblood home place

As a boy I remember going into the store room, it had a basement under it,there was a shallow tank that they cooled their dairy food in the water they pumped from the well into the tank than drained of by tile. At the present time the building still standes but has ben reduced in size. the building stood between the house and the garden.

Peter H. stayed home and took care of the folks as they aged and did not marry untill he was 35 years old. Peter farmed and raised and trained sulky race horses. He used the old store room for his tack room. Peter farmed untill about 1902 when he moved to Hoopston. Alta was five years old at this time. Barton Lewis farmed the home place for close to twenty years, Lewi s than bought a place west of the Church first road and south first house on the east from Harvey La Rue father. (smale place to retire on)

Alta told me of her and another girl taking her Dads buggy horse and racing around the old track in Mc Faren Park, that has long ben filled in, also the old lagoon.
Tt appers that Alta had also inheritability from her father .(for the racing horses.)

ANTIOCH CHURCH OF CHRIST TO DAY

FIRST STRUCTURE

First Church Building built in 1870 at the cost of $1638.30. The men hauld the lumber and material by horse and wagon from Attica, Ind. In 1879 the maple grove was set out. The four trees in front of the Church were dedicated to Mrs Saline Youngblood, Mrs Elizabeth Heaton, Mrs Deborah Ross and Mrs Jane Ross. In 1937 my brother-in-law and I cut the tree on the north side of the steps to get the honey out of it, as it was getting dangerous. At the time not knowing the history of it. It could have ben the tree that was dedicated to Salina Youngblood.

CASSTUS MARGARET(SHERRILL)YOUNGBLOOD

CASSIUS YOUNGBLOOD FAMILY

Cassius was the first child of Wm Franklin and Silina (Swaim) Youngblood born June 16, 1851 Red Wood Point Warren Co. Ind. near the present town of West Lebanon Ind. They moved to Grant Township, Vermillion Co. Ill. between years of 1854 and 1857. He was raised on the old Youngblood place located about one mile east of the Heaton Elevator, just west of the elevator stands the Antioch Church. On Dec. 25, 1875 Cassius married Margaret Sherrill in the Antioch Church.

CASSIUS YOUNGBLOOD FAMILY

To this union were born six children, Nora K. born Oct.18,1874 Franklin July 2,1876 both born north of Pence Ind.Albert born Dec.27, 1878 on the school 80 north of the old Youngblood place. Charles,Claude and Peter were born on the old Jonathan Prather farm located north of Attica road and south of the Church, on a branch of the North Fork River. Charles born Oct. 14, 1884, Claude bornin 1887, Peter was born in March 1892.

Albert

Albert as smale boy

Cassius farmed this place for seventeen years. Margaret died March 14, 1895 with an infected tooth. Peter was three years old at this time. I have heard my dad Albert and Uncle Frank telling how they used to swim their horses in the creek that runs through the place. A few years ago befor they tore down some of the buildings the names were still on the north wall of one of the barns of dad and his brothers. I have heard my dad and uncle Frank telling how they were coming home in a down pouring of rain, Albert got out of the buggie to open the gate. Just as he reached around the post to unfasten chain on the gate, a bolt of lightning struck. It dropped the horses

MARGRETTE ELIZABETH SHERILL YOUNGBLOOD.

Margrette E. S[illegible] was born in Fountain Co., Ind., Oct. 14th 1855. She was one of a family of nine children. Her child[illegible] was filled with happy and useful days. Life to her was always earnest and she filled it with sunshine and service. In the year 1871, she being 16 years of age, confessed her faith in her Savior, and by the hand of my Sainted Father, James Conner, she was buried with her Lord in baptism. She resolutely and calmly began her Christian life, and most resolutely she continued that life to the day of her decease. She was not an impulsive follower of Christ, she did not say thoughtlessly "Lord I will never forsake thee" but she never did forsake him. Her faith was Gibraltar like and all the waves of doubts and fears vainly lashed themselves into fury against its base, and the storm clouds of care and trials were broken on its summit. Upon this faith Sister Maggie stood and the sunshine of her soul tinged with marvelous beauty the riven clouds above and the broken billows beneath. Such faith makes all things sublime.

December 25, 1873 Sister Maggie became the wife of Casius M. Youngblood; the same man of God who married her to God, solemnized the vows that bound her to her chosen life companion. She was the mother of six children, five sons and one daughter. The home life was a most happy one. Twice I enjoyed the hospitalities when if was free from shadow. No words can tell how lovingly she was devoted to her husband and children. Here that resolution and calmness that characterized her Christian life still manifested itself. She lived as though she would live forever and yet lived as though she expected to depart any hour. Her highest commendation is the love and devotion of her husband and her children, and if there is to be any thing added thereto it must be found in the character these sons and this daughter present to the world. When I visited the home of sister Youngblood five weeks ago, the shadows were beginning to gather and soon the night of death followed. It was preceeded by 13 days of most intense suffering.

Deep and dar , are the shadows that still hang over the hearts of her dear ones. We cannot keep back the sighs and tears. And why should we, our loss is irreparable on earth. Often when we are separated from loved ones on earth we say Good-bye with tears streaming from our eyes and when they are still on earth surrounded by friends and happy, yet when we think of them, become home sick and sad and long to see them. We sigh and brush away the tears even when it is well with our departed ones We sorrow now; but not as those who have no hope.

Sister Youngblood has passed from earth's cares and sorrows. For a season the body rests in earth but her soul, that divine like and immortal self that looked out of the windows of clay; that immortal, indestructible energy that electrified us by the touch of earthly fingers has returned to the Father of spirits; there to await the resurrection morn. Of her we may truly say,

Rest sweet soul in heavenly peace,
Rest from all thy toils and pains
Rest where bliss eternal reigns
We thy peace would not destroy
Nor recall thee from thy joy.
Rest sweet soul. Forever more
Rest with loved ones gone before.

We will feel thee ever near.
Oft in memory thy face appear.
Dead! Ah no! 'Tis false, not true!
Living! Hidden from our view
Living and absent that is all,
Coming back at memories call.

From thy hights in glory shine,
Flood with light this soul of mine
Dispell my gloom, my doubts and fears
As thou didst in other years;
Lift my eyes from sordid earth
To those thing of greater worth.

Teach me how to break away
From the pleasures of to-day,
Help me lift my loved ones higher
And new hope in them inspire.
Thy sweet life shall a beacon be to their knees, Albert also fell. It came off the fence scorching a place on his right arm. across his body and off his two legs. Frank jumped out and as he picked him up, he was limp as a rag as his feet came up almost to his face. It took six weeks before he fully recovered. The Youngbloods were known for their love for fine stock and their horsemanship, which was inherited from their Grand Father Wm. Franklin. One day Cassus took Albert and Frank's horses for his own use. When Frank and Albert wanted to go to town they had to use work horses or walk, Which they were not about to do. So they took the next best. Upon arriving in town they tied their horses at the edge of town near where the rail road tracks are now. They walked the rest of the way into town, as they were not to be seen in an old rig. About once a year their Dad would take them to Danville to outfit them with clothes. Cassius married Ella Pearl Engle June 2, 1896. To this union were born Vernice Jan Nov.7,1898, Ambrose M. March 30, 1903 and Newton Edwin on Feb.4, 1908.

In 1902 Uncle Bert Sherrill and family, Mode Bowman and family including his mother Jane, Mode was a brother inlaw of Franks, also Franks family and Albert moved to Minn. They moved their equipment and live stock by rail. Some of the men rode in the rail cars with the stock sleeping under a wagon box turned upside down. The fiest year,as they planted their corn with a planter, the old Germans thought that they would be unable to cross cultivate the corn as the Germans could when theyplanted in a square as they called it. (by hand). After they saw how the Youngbloods could cross cultivate the second year they wanted the Youngblood's to plant their corn with a planter as it was much faster. In 1905 Oct. 10, Charles while visting Albert and Frank in Minn. was killed in a accident hunting ducks, north of New Auburn on Shiller Lake. Charles lived in Hoopston, Ill. The gun while being moved in the boat accidentally discharged striking Charles in the head and killing him.

Albert married Hattie Wilkins Sept. 9, 1906 after a courtship In which Hattie's brothers gave Albert a bad time. Such as turning his horse loose, also cutting the rope part way through so it would break when two sat in the hammock. Albert drove a Hackney horse that held it's head high so dad reined it high. So to please his future in law's he took the rein off, the horse held its head high regardless with no rein. The brothers would talk German in front of Albert. He did not understand German. He did not let this discourage him. In later years I heard of other tricks they pulled on Dad.

In 1906 Cassius bought 784 acres of virgin land in Arkinsas just east of Carlisle. Frank and family, Albert and his new wife moved from Minn. to Arkinsas. While their Dad Cassius moved from Ill. They broke virgin prairie ground with walking plow, they put in a well that threw a ten inch stream of water. The pump was powered by steam fired with wood for the boiler. cutting wood from their virgin timber. They had dike's all through the field, flooding one area at a time, after flooding one area, with shovel they would dig through the dike letting the water flow into next area. I have heard Frank and Albert tell of when they had 14 head of mules bogged down at one time, trying to cut rice with an ordinary wheat binder that operated off a bull wheel that drove the machinery as it turned while it was being pulled along. Other farmers came from Ill. and Ind. to raise rice in this new land. Among them were Cranes, Smiley, Smiths and others. They had hardly landed then they started the Christian Church in Carlisle Ark. The following taken from old old record book owend by Mrs Jessie (Kenneth)Gosney Carlisle Ark.R. #3, the daughter of Homer Smiley. The Youngblood were charter members: Frank, Bessie, Hattie,Albert,Claude,Ella and Cassius. Youngblood house and family

Albert lived in the same house with Cassius when the house burned down,losing almost everything. Hattie was in bed with new born baby; Albert picked Hattie, Charles up wrapping them in bed clothing, dragging Hatties feet through mud as he carried them to a dry and save place in the barn. Upon rebuilding Cassius built a large house (apartment) for Frank, Albert and his family. There many stories about living under same roof. How, Claude at one time killed a bunch of black birds,pulled the heads off, including one robin, Hattie had the job of cooking the breast. Claude declared the robin was a red wing black bird so Hattie cooked the robbin with the others and saved the robin for Claude. As she knew he would be stopping about meal time, he ate the robin but did not let that any thing was wrong. Peter was just a young man at this time full of mischief, and as quick as a cat. He would see some one sitt-on a horse, he would run and put his hands on the rump of the horse and land behind the one on the horse. The Youngblood's were known for their horsemanship. One day Hattie was in town with Elva and Margaret, when the horse rared up. Men along the street just sat there. As one of them said later, "It's one of the Youngblood women, they can handle the situation." (She just took the reins in hand laid on the whip, went flying out of town, but it was under control.)

Ralph had some goats, one of the older fellows ask if his goat's ears hung down,and he told them his goats ears hung up. One of the goats got into Albert's new buggy and with his horns he tore the top of the buggy up. Albert was about to get rid of the goat. With a large family there was never a dull moment. they had an old mule named Granny. Some of the help had tied her with a long rope. She had gotten turned around and had one of the colored help back to the manger and was blazing away with both feet. Grandad laughed and said that he never saw such big eyes befor. Cassius had a Studebaker which he would not drive,which he let Ella drive,but he had to operate the throttle. Good thing the cars were much slower than today's cars.The land that Cassius owned in Arkansas today is owned by the family of Rockefellers still raising rice. (the heart of riceland.) Frank and his family moved back to Ill. in the year 1911 and worked for the sweet corn canning factory. Albert moved back to Minn. in the year of 1913 where he farmed for seven years befor selling out and moving to Ill.

In Sept. 1920 Dad loaded us kids and mother in the family car a 1917 Touring model T Ford and headed back to his home state. He was told by his brother inlaws that he would not make it in the Ford. It took us three and half days to drive it, at about twenty mile an houre. The same distance we drive today in nine or ten hours. Dad could not see us kids being brought up in Church were part of the services were being held in German. (No other Church close to us at this time. Dad had been brought up in a Christian Church.) I was five years old at the time we moved to Ill. The roads were not the best, I remember we were stuck in loose sand in the middle of a main road. (A gravel road was considered a good road.) I remember crossing the Mississippi River out of Iowa into Ill. The old iron bridge was going through a replaplacement of the old floor.I can see in my memory still,that opening in the flooring of the bridge, with the Mississippi far below. Albert and family lived in Hoopston till next spring 1921 he found work at Chanute Field in Rantoul, Ill. Than they moved to Ludlow Ill., were I started to school. In 1923 we moved west of Rossville were Dad worked on a farm by the month. In 1924 Cassius,Ella,and Ed moved back to Ill. from Ark. lived with us till spring. Than moved into town. Cassius died May 22,1926 and was buired in Miller cemetery, as was his father and mother, a brother Ambrose, and some infant sisters, his first wife Margaret, second wife Ella, a sone Ambrose. All of Cassius children are dead except Ed who lives in Cal. (Lawer in Los Angeles Area)

RALPH FRANKLIN YOUNGBLOOD AUTOBIOGRAPHY

Born Oct. 5, 1905, in Glenco, Minn. In 1906 my folks Frank and Bessie and family moved to Carlisle, Arkansas on a rice farm, grandad Youngblood had purchased 824 acres Vergine land. Ralph in 1911 started to school in Ark. country school house March 1912 Frank and family moved to Rossville, Ill. were Ralph attended school. In March 1914 Frank and family moved father inlaws farm were Ralph attended Waveland school and latter attende Rossville High School driving a horse and buggie. Ralph worked farming with his father tillfirst of Aug. when he went to work for Uncle Claude who was farming the old Youngblood farm east of Antioch Church, or Heaton Elevator. On Oct. 1, 1926 Virginia V. Biteler and Ralph were married by Bro. Scott in Danville Il. at the parsonage, with Ambrose Youngblood and Frank my dad as witnesses.

Virginia and I lived on this farm until March 1927, when we moved to the Trimble Farm were we lived for two years. Besides farming the 60 acre, I hauled gravel for county road maintainence with horses. Our first child Iris Louise was born March 4, 1928 at our home.

March 1, 1929 we moved to the Conduff Bro's farm, where I worked by the month for one year. March 1930, we moved to the 160 Willard farm. Our first son Lyle Franklin was born here Jan. 28, 1932. These were very lean years or (depression years) Dad and I butcherd 150 head of hogs this winter, and peddled meat from house to house in Rossville and Alvin, Ill. This was the winter of 1931. In Dec. 1932 we closed our house up and went to Alvin, Ill. and stayed with Virginia's mother while I worked on State road 119, working in 14 below zero weather, hauling dirt in truck with no windshield. The contractors did not have money to pay the help for 6 weeks. In Feb we moved back to our home. In March of 1933, we moved to Earl Goodwin 3 miles east and 3/4 mile south of Tab,Ind. which I had rented in the fall of 1932, 160 acres. I sold our 1932 corn crop for 15¢ per bushel. Our second son Donald Eugene was born Sept. 25, 1933. In 1935 Ralph bought his first rubber tired tractor. Mr Goodwin rented Ralph additional 80 acres, making 240 acres. In 1936, he bought his first Alliss Chalmers tractor 5 foot combine. He did custom work. In 1937 Ralph rented 160 acres pasture east of Rainsville,In. He bought live stock to pasture this land. In 1939, we bought 431/3 acres, adjoining this pasture. On Jan. 1st 1940 a pair of twins were born to us a boy and girl, Carol Sue and Carl Lew. In Sept. of 1942, we purchased 195 acres farm, south of West Lebanon, Ind. on state road 63 , here we had hired help living on the farm for 4 years. On Nov. 8, 1945,I had the misfortune of losing my right hand in corn picker, I was doing custom picking for George McIntosh, near Judyville,Ind. at this time I was farming 1100 acres with 2 bottom tractors. We moved in Dec. 1946 to the farm we had purchased, this was the first Christmas to have lights on the tree which was a big treat to the children. In May 1948 Tris graduated from Boswell, Indiana High School.

In 1949, I rented the 160 acre Humblen farm, for Lyle and Don to farm, which we farmed for 18 years. Lyle graduated from West Lebanon High School in 1950 and later served 4 years in Air Force. Don graduated in 1951 from West Lebanon High School and was drafted for 2 years in the Army. Carel and Carl graduated in 1958 from West Lebanon High School. Carl enlisted for 6 months service in the U. S. Army. I worked 4 years in P. M. A. office in Williamsport Indiana. The boys and I fixed a milking parlor for grade "A" milk. this we did while Lyle in the service. We remodeled the house on the hill and moved in Jan. 1956. Don had gone to service in Nov. 1955 and Lyle came home from the service in Jan. 1956 and moved on the farm and was here 2 years, then Don moved and Carl moved on the farm in 1962. Don lived on the farm 4 years. On April 17, 1961, I started working as inspector for the State Highway Dept. I resigned from the Highway Dept. in 1965. In May 1966 I was hired by Hoosier Acquisition to buy R/W for R. E. A. or Hoosier Energy this was quite a project 1700 miles all south of Indianapolis Indiana. Also R/W for Terre Haute Gas. Then I was contract Agent for A. T. &. T. for 3 1/2 years Virginia was with me living in Efficienecy apt. In Wilmington Ohio, Mt Vernon Ohio, Danville Ohio, and Nashville, Ill. In the spring of 1971, March 15, I retired and am Enjoying the retirement very much. Virginia says she has not retired much and wonders what the word means.

YOUNGBLOOD IN AS NEW MAUI SUN EDITOR

THE MAUI SUN
YEAR 9 ISSUE 34
JUNE 18-24, 1979

Ron Youngblood, Maui County information officer for the past three years, assumed full editorial control of the Maui Sun June 16, Sun publisher Kirk Munroe announced last week.

At the same time, Munroe announced the offices of the weekly newspaper have been relocated to 1728 Kaahumanu Avenue.

"We at the Sun are looking forward to working with Youngblood and taking advantage of his wide range of experience on Maui, Honolulu and on the Mainland," Munroe said.

"He will be a full-charge editor with the responsibility of helping to make the Sun the kind of community newspaper Maui deserves -- the best."

"The six years I have lived on Maui have shown me that this community is filled with people who not only get things done but they care about each other," Youngblood said.

"With the help of the Sun staff, which is as good as any small newspaper staff around, I am looking forward to being able to report and write about all of the unique elements of Maui.

"My tenure with the County has been very satisfying. I'm grateful Mayor Cravalho gave me a chance to serve this community and I hope, as editor of the Sun, to continue that service," Youngblood said.

Youngblood, 36, was appointed County information officer in July, 1976 following a year with the Department of Parks and Recreation as a publicist.

He arrived on Maui in 1973 as the Honolulu Advertiser correspondent, following five years with the newspaper in Honolulu where he was ~~the~~ first fulltime graphics editor in the state, an assistant city editor and reporter with assignments ranging from coverage of student unrest at the University of Hawaii to the Legislature and personality interviews.

Before joining the Advertiser, Youngblood was one of three Central Division editors for United Press International in Chicago with the responsibility of supervising newsgathering and writing in nine states. During that time he reported on major riots, presidential campaigns, and, routinely, had his material published on hundreds of front pages across the country.

Ron Youngblood

Youngblood began his career with UPI in Indianapolis where he was night editor and broadcast editor while covering major disasters, sports events "and everything from State Fair 4-H awards to politics."

Before joining UPI in 1962, Youngblood attended Butler University and worked for a series of radio stations as a copywriter, newscaster and reporter.

While on Maui, Youngblood has authored a three-act play produced by Maui Community Theatre in 1976, three unpublished novels and, for the last three years, has written the Maui United Way media presentation.

Woman, 90, lives by goals

By VALERIE MACE

C-N Hoopeston Bureau

ROSSVILLE — Mrs. Hattie Youngblood, 90, attributes her longevity to "hard work; I can't lay around and let people wait on me. I have to be the one to do it."

Mrs. Youngblood lives by that idea, she says, and it "hasn't hurt me yet."

Mrs. Youngblood, a resident of Rossville and the surrounding area for 72 years, bakes once a week, does a lot of reading, her own sewing, knitting and crocheting and watches television. She is also proficient in tatting, a type of embroidery that is not seen much today. A woman that does almost everything herself, Mrs. Youngblood built most of her kitchen cabinets.

Born near New Auburn, Minn. June 10, 1887, Mrs. Youngblood was the oldest of four children. She and her three brothers attended a country school three miles from their farm home.

During the severe winters in Minnesota, said Mrs. Youngblood, she would stay at her grandmother's house in New Auburn. "The snow would fall and freeze so hard and high that you could drive a sleigh and a team of horses over the tops of the fenceposts," she said.

Mrs. Youngblood's father was a farmer and owned his farm along with his two brothers, who lived with the family.

Mrs. Youngblood attended school until what she approximates is now sophomore year in high school. She met and married Albert Youngblood, a native on Illinois whose father had bought a farm in Minnesota at the age of 19.

Her husband helped on his father's farm along with his brother for a few years. They then moved to Arkansas where Youngblood, his father and brother purchased a farm and raised rice and corn.

The Youngbloods returned to Minnesota for seven years and later moved to Illinois. Youngblood found work at Chanute Air Force Base as a carpenter's assistant for a while.

While living in Arkansas, Mrs. Youngblood remembers "working right along side my husband; I did pretty near everything you can do on a farm. We had cows and chickens, a few hogs and a big vegetable and fruit garden. We also put up hay."

Mrs. Youngblood recalls the Depression years, "We had a big garden and I canned fruit and vegetables a lot, at one time over 400 quarts," she said. "We were a lot better off than some people we knew of," Mrs. Youngblood said, "but if we had another Depression like we did then, these young people with small children and big houses would be lost. They wouldn't know what to do."

A member of the Antioch Church of Christ, Mrs. Youngblood seldom misses church. She said there have been eight Sundays she has not been able to attend church due to the weather. She is also a member of the Rossville Senior Citizens Club.

Mrs. Youngblood travels when she has the chance and has been to California, Denver, Colo., Buffalo, N.Y., Cheyenne, Wyo. and Minnesota to visit friends and relatives. "You can make yourself at home most any place you go, and I have," she said with a smile.

Living for 90 years has given Mrs. Youngblood an opportunity to view some of the advancements in science and society.

"The past 10 to 15 years have really been something, as far as changes in history and inventions of all sorts, but I don't see any reason in sending a man to the moon or anywhere else in outer space, why not stay on Earth and take care of the problems we have here instead of spending money on things that may not have any effect on our immediate future," she said.

Mrs. Youngblood and her husband had six children, the oldest dying in infancy. Her five remaining children are Mrs. Elva Gilbert of Rossville, Mrs. Bill (Margaret) Whiteman of Greenfield, Ind., Dale Youngblood of Lansing, Floyd Youngblood of Indianapolis, Ind. and Robert Youngblood, a lieutenant colonel in the Air Force at Cheyenne, Wyo. She has 11 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

"All my children attended Rossville schools, the girls took nurses training and the boys went into different fields," said Mrs. Youngblood.

Mrs. Youngblood's husband died in January of 1957. She has lived at 310 Dale for 35 years.

Getting Old.

I looked in the mirror this morn,
And this is what I seen.
Dark lines, gray hair, telltale wrinkles and low a sagging jaw
I peeled me the mirror again
To see what I could see, And there
I met a twinkling eye a staring straight at me
The wrinkles I dont mind a lot
nor if the gray hairs show
While there's a twinkle in my eye
I'm still young you know
If ever I look in that cold glass and meet a stare that's cold
I know my youthful days are gone
And I am growing old.

Jan. 27-04 Home Wedding Chronicle.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday of last week at the home of the bride s parent's, at 422 Honeywell avenue, at eight o'clock, when Minta M. Green and Mr. Charles Youngblood were united in marriage by Rev. L. I. Mercer of the Christian church.

The bride is the handsome and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Green, and is well known in this city and community. She was engaged as operator at the local telephone exchange up to the time of her marriage. The groom is the son of Cassius Youngblood, living in the Antioch neighborhood, and is well and favorably known.

Only the relatives and a few of the most intimate friends of the bride and groom were present at the wedding. Their friends wish for them a long and happy wedded life.

Wedding Bells

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Minta Green to Mr. Charles Youngblood, the ceremony to occur at the home of the bride's parents on Seminary avenue, on Wednesday, January 27, Rev. Mercer officiating.

SERIOUSLY INJURED

Hooperston Herald
Oct - 1905.

Chas. Youngblood Probably Fatally Shot at Glenco Minnesota.

H. C. Greene of this city, received a message this afternoon from Glenco, Minn., stating that his son-in-law, Chas. Youngblood, had probably been fatally wounded by being shot.

The victim in company with his wife and father and step-mother, Mr. and Mrs. Cash. Youngblood, left just a week ago for the above named place to visit other brothers. No particulars have been received other than that Charles had been shot and that immediate arrangements would be made to bring him to this city. It is presumed that he was probably in company with others on a hunting expedition and was accidentally shot either by his own firearm or one in the hands of some companion.

This is sad news indeed to Mr. Youngblood's many friends who hold him in the highest esteem.

HOW CHAS. YOUNGBLOOD MET DEATH.

Hoopeston Chronicle Herald

The Gun Was Accidentally Discharged, Killing the Deceased Instantly.

The account of the accidental shooting of Chas. Youngblood is a sad one. The blame cannot be placed on anybody, nor can those who were in his company at the time of the accident feel any remorse, other than the sense of deep sorrow which overshadows the entire family and their many sympathizing friends.

On the morning of October 10th, Chas. Youngblood, in company with his brother Frank, who is engaged in farming near New Auburn, Minn., and a younger brother, Peter, left the country residence on a duck hunting expedition. They had proceeded on their march in quest of game some two miles. At this point they came to Lake Chilla, a small lake which is the home of many wild ducks. A boat was secured and the party were going to row out into a desirable part of this body of water. Frank and Peter preceded Charles in entering the boat, as the latter had remained on the bank for the purpose of giving the boat a start. He had placed his gun in the boat with the stock facing him, hence when he entered the boat the gun was not in a dangerous position. But not being in a convenient part of the boat to assist with the rowing, Chas. passed from the rear of the boat to the front and in so doing also passed from the stock of the gun to a position just in front of the muzzle.

Frank at once remarked "Charles that is dangerous," and endeavored to move the gun. In so doing the hammer of the gun in a purely accidental manner came in contact with the boat, and the gun was discharged. The shot struck its victim just above the left ear, entering his brain and terribly mangling the back of his head. He died instantly never uttering a word or cry. Frank at once took his brother in his arms and sent Peter to a neighbor's house about a quarter of a mile away, and told the sad news to kind friends who at once helped to remove the body to the home of his brother Frank.

Chas. Youngblood was the son of C. M. Youngblood, and would have been twenty-one years old had his life been spared until Saturday. His mother preceded him in death. He was married to Miss Minta Groen, daughter of H. C. Green and wife of this city, Jan. 28, 1904. The past year he has been employed by the Sprague Mfg. Co. He was a worthy member of the Christian church and was not afraid to take up the cross of duty that directed his life in the steps of a true christian. Besides the relatives above mentioned he leaves a sister, Mrs. J. M. Sears of this city, two younger brothers, Claude and Peter, who are at home, and Frank and Albert of New Auburn, Minnesota.

Those who left here the third of this month to visit in the northwest in company with the deceased, arrived in the city this morning with the remains. The brothers, Frank and Albert and Geo. McCallister, a neighbor of the latter boys also returned with the sorrowing relatives.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow at two o'clock at the Christian church. Rev. L. I. Mercer will preach the sermon. The interment will occur at the Floral Hill cemetary beside a babe that was laid to rest about a year ago.

The infant child of Mrs. Minta Youngblood, which died at birth, was buried at Floral Hill yesterday. The young mother has certainly had her full share of sorrow, having lost her husband and two infant children within a year and a half. Her friends extend heartfelt sympathy

SON...ON BEING 21

Oh, once there was a lovely boy
Came into this world to give us Joy.
My prayer was answered from above
A perfect image..of the man I loved.

I have such hopes you'll follow thru,
His footsteps set the path for you.
A finer man you could not find,
There aren't many of his kind.

God gives us just one life to lead,
To do our best in act and deed.
It is our choice..which path we choose
Whether we will win or lose.

Now you are grown and twenty-one-
In time you'll also have a son;
And hopes of fulfillment as I've had
MY ONLY PRAYER
You're as good a man as your Dad.

Mr. Dale J. C. Youngblood,
18233 Ridgewood Ave,
Lansing, Illinois 60438

Dear Dale:

Thank you for your letter of September 15, 1979 and I sincerely apologize for being so long in replying to your request. My wife, Dorothy, and I also visited June and Kenny Neathery in March. June probably told you of my interest in family history. But like so many other things "you are always going to do someday" I just haven't done any in depth research. I guess I have been waiting for someone like yourself to do it for me. I will certainly be interested in obtaining a copy of your efforts.

I have known June and Kenny since before Barb was born. Kenny and I both worked for Lafayette Alcoa Works for thirty years and much of that time in the same department. Both of our families were also active at The First Christian Church here in Lafayette. Our daughter, Rebecca, and Barbara Neathery are the same age and were together in school, Church events, and much of their social growing up. It was not until I read in the obituary of June's father, Frank, that I was aware of our relationship. I had attended Youngblood reunions both in Hoopeston and Danville, was also at your Grandfather Cassius's funeral at Rossville but this was in the 1920's so my remembering those that were there are quite vague.

The descendents of George W. Newman and Emma Youngblood Newman have remained quite close and have had a reunion each year since 1922. The only living child is Blanche Newman Timmons whose home is on Elm Street, in Hoopeston. She is not well and is currently in the extented health care center at the Hoopeston hospital. I will give you the complete list of all of the descendants but dates, other than my own family, would be estimated. I will work on this and give a more accurate list later. Incidently I have a picture of Salina Swain Youngblood, wife of William Franklin Youngblood, our mutual great-grandmother.

Emma Youngblood - born in Vermilion Co., Illinois in 1857 - married George Washington Newman April 16, 1876 at Antioch, Ill. - died November 28, 1906 - burial at Floral Hill Cemetery, Hoopeston, Ill. Grandpa Newman is also buried at Floral Hill but I do not have the date.

Their children are listed in sequence as to their age:

Joseph Franklin Newman - your letter indicated that you have the dates of their births and dates. I believe Aunt Ella's maiden name was Kaiser. Their only son, Raymond, died at age 24. He had not married. I believe the cause of death was tuberculosis.

Lena Newman - - married Alan Francis Liggett. Alan was killed in an auto accident in Danville in the late 1920's and is buried there. Aunt Lena later made her home with here daughter, Alene in California and is buried there. Children are:

Allene Frances Liggett - married Rufus J. Marshall, who retired as a school teacher and coach in the Compton, Calif. school system. They now live in Long Beach, Calif. They have one son, James R. Marshall , a former professional baseball player. Jim was manager of the Chicago Cubs just prior to Herman Franks. He is currently manager of the Oakland A's. He and his wife, Beverly, have two sons and a daughter. Their home is Scottsdale, Ariz.

My mother used to say the Youngblood's, as far back as she knew came from Fountain Co., Ind. I am assuming that this is where William Franklin Youngblod or perhaps his parents came from. There are still some descendants in the Veedersburg, Ind. area. A Mrs Dorothy Snyder and her brother Zeke Youngblood, a retired Indiana State Policeman, still live in Veedersburg. And, of course, June's brother, Ralph, farmed near West Lebanon, Ind. and Ralph"s son is, or at least was, mayor of Covington, Ind. I plan to contact Mrs. Snyder to see what family information she has.

I am looking forward to see your finished work. If you are in the Lafayette area, please look me up.

yours very sincerely,

Correspondence with youngbloods who's folks came from Holland settling in Attica, Ind. early 1900.

2017 E Main St. D2
Rochester, N.Y. 14609
Nov. 11- 77

Dear Mr. Youngblood:-

I recieved your letter and am sending you copies of record books that my grandmather sent to my father- Frank. (Franciscus Petrus)

My cousin - John Baardsen who lives in Detroit was born in Holland, the son of Louise Youngblood. He has two brothers and a sister still living in Sluis, Holland. John might be able to tell you something I haven't. His address is 16626 Burt Ave - Detroit, Mich. 48219.

I would be very interested in hearing from you again to know if any of this ties in with what you have already learned.

Sincerely,

Margaret L. Youngblood

Dear Dale:

Received your package, thank you. How long have you been researching? I'm sending it to John Baas, I'm sure he will find it interesting. He lived in Attica with my parents when he first came from Steins, Holland.

I was born in Attica in 1913. Don't recall hearing of any other Youngbloods in the area.

I moved to Rochester in 1929. I have written to a cousin in Attica asking her if she recalls anyother Youngblood's. She was born in Attica and lived there and in that area all her life.

She is in her 80's now.

It's really interesting, isn't it.

Hope you will keep in touch and maybe someday we will meet.

Wishing you and yours Happy Holidays.

Margaret Youngblood

Detroit. 11-7-1977.

Dear Mr. Yarnglood.

I received your most interesting letter asking in helping you with a so difficult task, tracing from what European country your forefathers came.

I wholeheartedly will give you my limited knowledge of aiding you WITH ~~of~~ this problem.

Mrs. Jake Yarmyblood of St. Joe, Mich., you contacted last Summer, is my Cousin.

In 1907 his father and four uncles immigrated from the town of SLUIS, (SLUICE), Prov. of Zeeland, Holland. They Settled in the town of Attica, Ind., about 20 miles So. West of Lafayette, Ind. near the Ill. Border, this group of course could not have been related to the Yarnglloods of N. Carolina.

To clarify the name Youngblood more clearly.

In the Dutch language the name is "JONGBLOED", the pronouncing, however, is almost indentical the same as in English.

In the German language the name is "JUNGBLUTT" and is pronounced not as clearly as in the DUTCH language.

The reason that the Youngbloods from Attica, IND. switched THEIR NAME from Dutch to English is that it was more convenient for them to be named Youngblood than "JONGBLOED", to spell their name in Dutch would have been very confusing and also inconvenient because the pronouncing is the same anyway so why not doing it the easy way.

DUTCH: JAKOB JONGBLOED! OR

✓ JAKOBUS JONGBLOED (Baptismal name

English: JAKE YOUNGBLOOD.

Jacob is Jake

III

Many family names in Holland start with, "VAN"; which means "FROM", like, Van Zandt, Van Camp, Van Duzen etc, "DE" means "THE" like De Graaf, De Young etc.

As you know the first settlers of the Cities of New York and Albany, N.Y. and their surroundings came from Holland.

"PE & LE", Peter Stuyvesant, (New York's first Mayor) was born in the town of, Scheperheel, Friesland, Holland. The two Presidents Roosevelts ances. tors came from the town of, OUD VOS-MEER (OLD FOX LAKE), Zeeland. Holland, also Van Rensselaer, Blauvelts. Gen. Schuyler, DOK, President Van Buren, names all do well known of the early colonial history of the U.S.

They mostly settled in New York State, some in New Jersey and Dela ware that's as far South they went.

IV.

At that time the States of Virginia and the Carolinas were Strictly English Settler territories.

Mrs. Youngblood, may I suggest a plan on how to get more information regarding your ancestors. Write to the librarian of the State of New York library, Albany, N.Y., explaining everything you'd like to know pertaining your Ancestors.

There is in N.Y. State a Society of decendents of "Dutch American Settlers of New York State", I used to know their address, but alas I've lost it.

To write to librarian of the N.Y. State library in Albany, N.Y. I'm sure he gladly give you all the assistance you would like to have enclosing a self addressed. Stamped envelope will be sufficient for a prompt reply.

Walter Cronkite, Henry Fonda belong to this above mentioned Society also the late Humphrey Bogard, who's ancestors came also from Holland.

If you like to get more information do not hasitate to write me. You have been doing very well in tracing your ancestors, do not give up now, you almost made it.

Sincerely yours.

John Baas.
16626 Burt Road.
Detroit. Mich.
48219.

P.S.

The Dutch langage is NOT the same as German.

ALWays write the original name "JONGBLOED" for information in Albany, N.Y.

THE JONGBLOEDS

The Youngbloods from Sluis, Hol they also traced their ancestors, all came from Holland. NOT Germany.

Sluis, Holland, is the most So-West town of Holland, right on the Belgian boider, close to the North Sea, Popp. 3.500.

Population of Holland, 1975. is 13.750.000, 14,000 □ Miles Area most heavily populated Country.

Van de hierin vermelde echtgenooten is de Man overleden te Sluis

den 2a April 1921

de Vrouw overleden

te Sluis

den 14 December 1920,

De aangifte van OVERLIJDEN moet worden gedaan door twee meerderjarige manspersonen, binnen dit Rijk woonachtig, ter Secretarie der Gemeente waar de persoon overleden is.

Bij deze aangifte moet worden opgegeven:

1o. Naam, voornaam, beroep, ouderdom, woonplaats (met opgaaf van wijk en huisnummer) en geboorteplaats van den overledene.

2o. Als de overledene gehuwd, weduwnaar of weduwe was, de naam en voornaam van den anderen echtgenoot.

3o. De voornamen, namen, het beroep en de woonplaats der ouders van den overledene.

4o. Plaats, dag en uur van het overlijden.

Betrekkelijk het begraven van lijken, zijn den 10 April 1869 vastgesteld de navolgende wettelijke bepalingen:

Elk overleden persoon en doodgeboren kind wordt in eene gesloten kist begraven op eene begraafplaats overeenkomstig de wet aangelegd of toegelaten.

Geene begraving geschiedt zonder schriftelijk verlof van den Ambtenaar van den Burgerlijken Stand, waarin de begraafplaats, waarin het lijk ter aarde zal worden besteld, wordt vermeld.

Geen verlof tot begraven wordt verleend, zoolang niet is overgelegd eene door een geneeskundige afgegeven verklaring van Overlijden. Deze verklaring wordt ook gevorderd voor levenloos geboren kinderen.

Wanneer iemand zonder geneeskundige behandeling is overleden, mag geene begraving plaats hebben of verlof daartoe worden afgegeven, vóór dat, door eenen daartoe van gemeentewege aangestelden en beëedigden geneeskundige, lijk- of doodschouw is verricht.

Geene begraving mag vroeger dan 36 uren of later dan op den vijfden dag na het overlijden geschieden, tenzij door den Burgemeester, na verhoor van een geneeskundige, schriftelijk ontheffing is verleend.

Wanneer een geneeskundige verklaart, dat bespoediging of uitstel van begraving noodig is, kan het begraven op een vroeger tijdstip dan 36 uren of op een later tijdstip dan den vijfden dag, door den Burgemeester schriftelijk worden gelast.
